

Sea Services Luncheon

August 4, 2017
Seattle Navy League
Sea Services Awardees

Seattle Navy League
2017 Annual Sea Services Luncheon

Admiral Scott H. Swift
Commander, U.S. Pacific Fleet

Adm. Scott Swift attended San Diego State University and received his commission in 1979 through the Aviation Reserve Officer Candidate program. He received his master's degree from the Naval War College, Newport, Rhode Island.

His operational assignments include Attack Squadron (VA) 94; VA-97; Carrier Air Wing 11 staff; commander, Strike Fighter Attack Squadron (VFA) 97; commander, Carrier Air Wing 14; deputy commander, Naval Forces, U.S. Central Command; commander, Carrier Strike Group (CSG) 9; and commander, U.S. 7th Fleet. During those tours he participated in combat Operations Praying Mantis, Southern Watch, Enduring Freedom and Iraqi Freedom.

His shore tour assignments include VA-122; Naval War College; commander of Strike Fighter Weapons School, Pacific; F/A-18 requirements officer, OPNAV; commander, VFA-122; officer of the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition, Technology and Logistics staff; and director of Operations, U.S. Pacific Command.

Prior to assuming command at U.S. Pacific Fleet, he was assigned to the Pentagon as the director, Navy Staff.

Swift was promoted to Admiral and assumed command of the U.S. Pacific Fleet on May 27, 2015. He is the 35th commander since the fleet was established in February 1941 with headquarters at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.

Swift has been recognized as the commander, Naval Air Forces, U.S. Pacific Fleet Landing Signal Officer of the Year; was presented the Commander Michael G. Hoff Award as the U.S. Pacific Fleet Attack Aviator of the Year; and is entitled to wear the Distinguished Service Medal, Defense Superior Service Medal, Legion of Merit, Bronze Star, Meritorious Service Medal, and Air Medal with Combat V, along with various other personal, unit and service awards.

Note. All the information contained in this document was obtained in its original form from the individual ships and units.

Seattle Navy League
2017 Annual Sea Services Luncheon

Vice Admiral Nora W. Tyson
Commander, U.S. 3rd Fleet

A native of Memphis, Tennessee, Vice Admiral Nora Tyson graduated from Vanderbilt University and received her commission from Officer Candidate School in Newport, Rhode Island. She earned her wings as a naval flight officer in 1983 and reported to Fleet Air Reconnaissance Squadron (VQ) 4, where she ultimately served three tours at Naval Air Station (NAS) Patuxent River, Maryland, and Tinker Air Force Base, Oklahoma, including one as commanding officer.

Tyson also commanded the amphibious assault ship, USS Bataan (LHD 5), leading the Navy's contributions to disaster relief efforts on the U.S. Gulf Coast in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina, and deploying twice to the Persian Gulf in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom. Her other commands include commander, Task Force 73/commander, Logistics Group Western Pacific based in Singapore and, most recently, commander, Carrier Strike Group (CSG) 2, where she led the USS George H.W. Bush Strike Group on its maiden deployment in support of operations in both 6th and 5th Fleet areas of responsibility.

Her other tours at sea include assistant operations officer aboard the training aircraft carrier, USS Lexington (AVT 16), and as navigator aboard USS Enterprise (CVN 65).

Her shore tours include service on the Joint Staff as a political-military planner in the Asia-Pacific Division of the Strategic Plans and Policy Directorate (J-5); as executive assistant for the assistant to the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff; as director of staff for Commander, Naval Forces Europe/Commander, 6th Fleet; as executive assistant for the Chief of Naval Operations; and as vice director, Joint Staff. Tyson's last tour was as deputy commander, U.S. Fleet Forces Command. Tyson reported as Commander, U.S. 3rd Fleet in July 2015.

Tyson earned a Master of Arts in National Security and Strategic Affairs from the U.S. Naval War College in 1995.

Seattle Navy League
2017 Annual Sea Services Luncheon

Vice Admiral Fred M. Midgette
Commander, Pacific Area Commander, Coast Guard Defense Force West

Vice Admiral Midgette assumed the duties of Commander, Coast Guard Pacific Area in August 2016, where he serves as the operational commander for all U.S. Coast Guard missions within half of the world that ranges from the Rocky Mountains to the waters off the East Coast of Africa. He concurrently serves as Commander, Defense Force West and provides Coast Guard mission support to the Department of Defense and Combatant Commanders. Prior to this, he served as the Deputy Commandant for Operations where he was responsible for developing operational strategy, policy, guidance, and resources that address national priorities. From 2014 - 2015 he served in the Great Lakes as the Ninth Coast Guard District Commander, an area that encompasses eight states, a 1,500 mile international border, and a workforce of over 6,000 active duty, reserve, civilian, and auxiliary members. From 2011 - 2013, he served as the Senior Military Advisor to the Secretary of Homeland Security where he supported the Secretary in the coordination and execution of policy and operations between the Department of Homeland Security and the Department of Defense.

Vice Admiral Midgette has served afloat on both coasts and the Great Lakes, earning designation as a Coast Guard Cutterman and a U.S. Navy Surface Warfare Officer. He has commanded four Coast Guard cutters and served afloat on the CGC TANEY (Portsmouth, VA); USS FIFE (San Diego, CA); CGC POINT LEDGE (Fort Bragg, CA); CGC POINT WINSLOW (Eureka & Morro Bay, CA); CGC KATMAI BAY (Sault Ste. Marie, MI); CGC HARRIET LANE (Portsmouth, VA); CGC FORWARD (Portsmouth, VA); and America's Tall Ship - the Coast Guard Barque EAGLE (New London, CT). He is the 14th Gold Ancient Mariner of the Coast Guard – an honorary position held by an officer with over ten years of cumulative sea duty who has held the qualification as a Cutterman longer than any other officer.

His shoreside assignments include: Chief of Staff of the Ninth Coast Guard District; Sector Commander and Captain of the Port of Detroit; Liaison Officer to U.S. Northern Command; Executive Assistant to the Assistant Commandant for Operations at Coast Guard Headquarters; Liaison Officer to the legacy U.S. Customs Service; and at the Pentagon on the Joint Staff (J-7). He also served as the afloat member of the training and streamlining implementation teams that were tasked with a budget-driven reorganization of operations, personnel, and support functions across the entire Coast Guard in the mid-1990's.

A native of Virginia Beach, VA, he holds a B.S. in Civil Engineering (U.S. Coast Guard Academy '82), a M.S. in Management (Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute '91), and a M.A. in National Security and Strategic Studies (U.S. Naval War College '97).

Note: All the information contained in this document was obtained in its original form from the individual ships and units.

Seattle Navy League
2017 Annual Sea Services Luncheon

Rear Admiral Art McDonald, MSM, CD W. Tyson
Commander, MARPAC

Rear-Admiral Art McDonald assumed Command of Maritime Forces Pacific and of Joint Task Force Pacific on 22 July 2016.

Immediately prior to assuming Maritime Forces Pacific Command, then-Commodore McDonald served as Director General Naval Force Development (DGNFD) from 2013 to 2016, overseeing planning and conduct of the largest peacetime renewal in RCN history. His previous Chief of Naval Staff experience included serving as Director Naval Requirements from 2012 to 2013 as well as a tour as Executive Secretary to the Chief of the Maritime Staff from 2005 until 2007.

As a sea-going officer, he served in Her Majesty's Canadian Ships Vancouver (Bridge Watch Keeper (BWK), 1991-1992), Montreal (BWK, 1992-1994), and Calgary (Above Water Warfare Officer (AWWO), 1994-1996; and Operations/Combat Officer (OpsO/CbtO), 1996-2000). During two six-month deployments in Calgary, he circumnavigated the globe in 1995 and participated in UN sanctions enforcement in both the Adriatic Sea (1995) and the Arabian Gulf (twice: 1995 and 1999). As the Canadian Fleet Pacific (CANFLTPAC) Weapons Officer 2001-2002, he oversaw the Fleet's exercise missile firing programme and he again deployed to the Arabian Gulf/Sea - this time as a Task Group Watch Officer in flagships Ottawa and Algonquin for Operation APOLLO (Roto 1), the Canadian contribution to the global war on terrorism. After next serving as Executive Officer (XO) in Regina 2003-2005, he then commanded HMCS Halifax 2007-2009. While commanding Halifax he was also double-hatted in 2008 as Chief-Staff-Officer Operations, Canadian Fleet Atlantic. Upon promotion to Capt(N) and while serving as Commander Fifth Maritime Operations Group (CMOG5) in 2010-2011, he led sea-based humanitarian assistance and disaster relief operations as the Maritime Component Commander (MCC) of Canadian Joint Task Force (Haiti) (CJTf(H)) in response to the devastating 2010 earthquake in Haiti. As CMOG5 he also commanded a seven ship combined, multi-national naval and coast guard Task Group in the High Arctic in 2010's Operation NANOOK.

A Bluenoser born in New Waterford, Cape Breton, Rear-Admiral McDonald is a 1990 graduate of the Royal Military College (RMC) of Canada who holds a Bachelor's Degree in Military and Strategic Studies and a Masters of Defence Studies Degree. He is also a 2003 graduate of the Canadian Forces College (CFC) Command and Staff Course and a 2012 graduate of the National Security Programme (NSP).

Note: All the information contained in this document was obtained in its original form from the individual ships and units.

*Seattle Navy League
2017 Annual Sea Services Luncheon*

Seattle Navy League Board of Directors

President: Jeff Davis

President Elect: CAPT Bill Bulis, USN (Ret.)

Vice Presidents: CAPT Michele Bullock, NOAA (Ret.), Kyle Curtis*, Mark Haller*, Thomas Jaffa*

Executive Committee at Large: Diane Jaffa*

Immediate Past President: CAPT Matt Miller, USCG (Ret.)

Treasurer: Kyle Curtis*

Secretary/JAG: Hunter Abell

Chaplain: E. Lamont McDonald

Directors: April Collier, Lyn McClelland, Don Root, David Schiffman, Sheri Schiffman, Fred Smith, Steve Tripp

A special thank you to the Fleet Week Committee and Volunteers

Chair: Tom Jaffa

Co-Chair: Diane Jaffa

Committee: Hunter Abell, Darlene Benavidez, Bill Bulis, Michele Bullock, Kyle Curtis, Jeff Davis, Matt Miller

Color Guard: Blue Angel Sea Cadet Squadron – ENS Audrey Gallagher, SN Ian Roach, PO3 Kasey Kirschling, SA Taylor Phelps, SA Arryonna Hickam

National Director*

Note: All the information contained in this document was obtained in its original form from the individual ships and units.

Seattle Navy League
2017 Annual Sea Services Luncheon

LEADING SEAMAN DANIELA BERTUCCI
HMCS YELLOWKNIFE (MM-706)
YELLOWKNIFE'S SAILOR OF THE YEAR

Leading Seaman Bertucci is recognized for her outstanding leadership, dedication and skill. She continuously demonstrates leadership far superior to her rank level. As the communication second in charge she has ably mentored junior sailors in all aspects of communications and information technology. In the absence of the Senior Naval Communicator, she worked diligently to ensure that YELLOWKNIFE's communications and IT section was prepared to deploy this summer. As the ships charity coordinator, she has been single handedly responsible for raising thousands of dollars for both local and namesake city charities. Her dedication to the Navy and her unit are unsurpassed.

MASTER SEAMAN STEPHEN MAHABIR
HMCS YELLOWKNIFE (MM-706)
YELLOWKNIFE'S SAILOR OF THE YEAR

Master Seaman Stephen Mahabir is recognized for his performance and dedication in HMCS YELLOWKNIFE and The Royal Canadian Navy. He has volunteered consistently in several ships this year to lead the propulsion division while at sea. He displays a respectful attitude and initiative far beyond expectation. As a Master Seaman and second in charge, he supervises and directs the engineering personnel and repairs while the Chief Engineer is away for extended periods, a lofty feat at this rank. Mentoring peers and subordinates in areas including technical aptitude, administration, public speaking, computer programming and physical training, MS Mahabir is already known to many as a shining example with a bright future ahead

LEADING SEAMAN ADAM BURKE
HMCS EDMONTON (MM-703)
EDMONTON'S SAILOR OF THE YEAR

Leading Seaman Burke is a member of the combat information section onboard HMCS EDMONTON, and has taken a leading role in his department. He often fills in for his superiors as the acting section head, and keenly prepares briefings, messages, and intelligence updates on a regular basis. Additionally, Leading Seaman Burke is the Navigation Yeoman onboard, assisting the Navigating Officer in maintenance of charts and publications. He has worked closely with trainees to ensure they have the experience needed to excel in their future roles, and is a positive example to all member of the Royal Canadian Navy.

Note: All the information contained in this document was obtained in its original form from the individual ships and units.

Seattle Navy League
2017 Annual Sea Services Luncheon

MASTER SEAMAN MATTHEW DERYNCK
HMCS EDMONTON (MM-703)
EDMONTON'S SAILOR OF THE YEAR

Master Seaman Derynck is the main propulsion supervisor onboard HMCS EDMONTON, often a position filled by a more senior sailor. He works exceptionally hard to ensure HMCS EDMONTON is ready to meet her missions from a technical point of view, and has always been willing to put in extra effort to make the mission a success. As a junior leader in the ship he often takes time to mentor subordinates and works to ensure the next generation of sailors are able to meet the demands of the Navy. Finally, Master Seaman Derynck is also the President of the Junior Ranks Mess, and has shown exceptional leadership amongst his peers during his time in EDMONTON.

BM3 NICHOLAS S. BARUSSO
USCGC MELLON (WHEC 717)
SAILOR OF THE QUARTER

Petty Officer Barusso was selected as MELLON's Sailor of the Quarter for his leadership and positive attitude. He is in charge of maintaining MELLON's Rescue and Survival Systems for 48 boat crewman. Proper maintenance and inspection of this gear is vital to safe operations in the challenging conditions of the Bering Sea and Gulf of Alaska. He initiated and organized training opportunities and promoted crew member proficiency in shipboard preservation. He refurbished the flammable materials locker prior to the recent Bering Sea Patrol and volunteered to cover additional duties to support his shipmates during the 2017 transfer season.

MK1 CALEB A. MILLER
USCGC MIDGETT (WHEC 726)
ENLISTED PERSON OF THE YEAR

MK1 Miller is recognized for his exceptional performance as the Lead Petty Officer of the Main Propulsion Division onboard CGC MIDGETT. A true inspirational leader, his grasp of crew dynamics and extensive engineering knowledge were essential for detection of irregular performance of the Number 1 Controllable Pitch Propeller system, and a massive pressure drop in the Main Gas Turbines. Either issue would have been a catastrophic loss had he not directed the crew to take swift action. Additionally, his unrelenting devotion towards properly training his shipmates has made MIDGETT one of the most technically proficient cutters in the fleet.

Note: All the information contained in this document was obtained in its original form from the individual ships and units.

Seattle Navy League
2017 Annual Sea Services Luncheon

OS1 ANGELA THRASHER
COAST GUARD MARITIME FORCE PROTECTION UNIT BANGOR
ENLISTED PERSON OF THE YEAR

Petty Officer Thrasher is the 2016 Enlisted Person of the Year for Maritime Force Protection Unit, Bangor. Her forward leaning posture and impeccable work ethic, combined with her selfless desire to contribute to the community, were the key elements that led to her selection. Most notable are her tireless contributions to the Douglas Munro remembrance ceremony, a ceremony to honor the Coast Guard's only Medal of Honor recipient, and her organization of Coast Guard involvement in the 2016 "Shop with a Cop" event, where over 125 underprivileged kids were given the ability to purchase Christmas gifts with the assistance of law enforcement officers.

BM2 PATRICK L. O'BRIEN
USCG MARITIME SAFETY AND SECURITY TEAM SEATTLE
ENLISTED PERSON OF THE QUARTER

Petty Officer O'Brien is recognized for selection as MSST Seattle's Enlisted Petty Officer of the Quarter. He displayed outstanding professional knowledge and dedication while creating comprehensive work lists, underway training schedules, and developing new PowerPoint presentations for tactical training. As an expert tactical coxswain, he deployed to the Presidential Inauguration, the Presidential Security Zone in Mar-a-lago, Florida, and Rose Festival in Portland, Oregon. Through hard work and dedication, he recently qualified as a Water Survival Master and Opposing Forces Operator. With his leadership advice and work ethic, he served as a mentor to junior Petty Officers in the Waterside Department. His devotion to duty, hard-working nature, honesty, and loyalty to the unit embody traits valued by the Coast Guard.

ME2 BENJAMIN STEVERDING
COAST GUARD STATION SEATTLE
ENLISTED PERSON OF THE YEAR, RESERVE COMPONENT

In 2016, ME2 Steverding's efforts led to the qualification of four boarding team members and one boarding officer, directly contributing to Station Seattle's Reservists achieving a 45 percent position competency rating, one of the highest in the Coast Guard. Additionally, he led the Reserves in mission execution, completing 95 underway hours and 26 Law Enforcement boardings, resulting in 16 violations and six vessel terminations. As a Boarding Officer at SeaFair and the opening day of boating

Note: All the information contained in this document was obtained in its original form from the individual ships and units.

Seattle Navy League
2017 Annual Sea Services Luncheon

season, Petty Officer Steverding maintained impeccable decorum while interacting with the boating public, ensuring the safety and security of all attendees during both high-profile events. For his exceptional performance, he was chosen from 182 Reserve personnel as Sector Puget Sound's Enlisted Person of the Year.

YN1 JENNIFER LANHAM
COAST GUARD BASE SEATTLE

ENLISTED PERSON OF THE YEAR, ACTIVE COMPONENT

YN1 Lanham is Base Seattle's Enlisted Person of The Year for 2016. Demonstrating exceptional managerial ability, personal initiative, and unwavering dedication, she quickly adjusted to the growing responsibility of Servicing Personnel Office consolidation demands by effectively leading her team and supporting local and outlying commands throughout the Thirteenth District with the establishment of a variety of new and complex pay and personnel transaction processes. She audited 600 personal data records and eight units; processed 3,500 pay transactions, 589 meal rate adjustments, and 500 SELRES drills, approved 63 contracts, transferred 200 members, and coordinated 25 Burial At Sea requests. Prior to Port Security Unit 313 demobilization, she initiated a team to assist in verifying and completing 80 demobilizations, 80 DD-214s, and eight discharge/accessions to active duty. She selflessly volunteered for and worked tirelessly on multiple collateral duties that included Base Seattle Mutual Assistance Coordinator, Assistant Burial at Sea Coordinator, Leadership and Diversity Advisory Council member, Controlled Substance Audit Board member, Enlisted Association member, Professional Development Coach, and Base Seattle watch stander.

ME1 NATHANAEL KRUSE
COAST GUARD SECTOR PUGET SOUND
ENLISTED PERSON OF THE YEAR, SECTOR STAFF

Petty Officer Kruse mentored and trained over 125 active duty personnel within the Maritime Law Enforcement community in Washington State. Under his tutelage and leadership, he instructed 15 separate Coast Guard units in tactics, techniques, Notice to Violations training, Marine Information for Safety and Law Enforcement activity, fire arms instruction, and Boarding Officer (BO) competencies. As the lead Boarding Officer during SEAFair, he led a team that conducted over 500 safety spot checks, enforced five Boating Under the Influence cases, and ensured the safety of over 500,000 spectators during SEAFair. For his exceptional performance of duty, he was selected as the 2016 Sector Staff Enlisted Person of the Year.

Note: All the information contained in this document was obtained in its original form from the individual ships and units.

Seattle Navy League
2017 Annual Sea Services Luncheon

IS1 HARRISON C. TARBELL
COAST GUARD DISTRICT THIRTEEN
ENLISTED PERSON OF THE YEAR

IS1 Tarbell is recognized as USCG District 13's Enlisted Person of the Year. As District 13's sole enlisted Intelligence Specialist, IS1 Tarbell multi-tasked many different mission sets and intelligence disciplines in support of District 13 Intelligence. IS1 Tarbell was consistently sought after as a data science specialist in the District 13 area. Because of IS1 Tarbell's expertise and knowledge of the prolific drug trade, he was selected to deploy on CG Cutter ACTIVE during an East Pacific patrol. While deployed, he proved invaluable to the command, providing daily intelligence summaries and training for the crew. His work led to the seizure of over 1000kg of cocaine, with an estimated value of $30 million.

PS2 (SW) EUNICE NYAGUTHII
USS MICHAEL MURPHY (DDG 112)
JUNIOR SAILOR OF THE YEAR

Petty Officer Nyaguthii's big-picture awareness, impressive multi-tasking ability, and soundness in evaluating and mitigating risks maximized the effectiveness of her key position. Petty Officer Nyaguthii's sustained superior performance, exemplary conduct, and unwavering enthusiasm combined with true compassion made her an easy selection for Junior Sailor of the Year. Petty Officer Nyaguthii performed brilliantly, not only this year, but during her entire time onboard. As Administrative Division Work Center Supervisor and Personnel Clerk, she contributed immensely to the professional and personal development of all Sailors within her division and command-wide. She excels at every challenge and her extraordinary efforts have contributed directly to numerous command awards and record-setting events.

GSM2 (SW) JONATHAN YOUNG
USS MICHAEL MURPHY (DDG 112)
SAILOR OF THE YEAR

Petty Officer Young is recognized by junior and senior Sailors alike as a highly knowledgeable engineer, capable of training the most junior seaman as well as the most seasoned Chief. As a Third Class Petty Officer, he was the Work Center Supervisor for Main Engine Room #2, the largest Work Center on the ship. Now as a Junior Second Class Petty Officer, he is the Leading Petty Officer of that work center. There is not another Second Class Petty Officer on this ship who wields as much leadership, maturity,

Note. All the information contained in this document was obtained in its original form from the individual ships and units.

Seattle Navy League
2017 Annual Sea Services Luncheon

and respect as this Sailor. With his knowledge, management, and dedication, MICHAEL MURPHY's Engineering Department is a well-tuned, committed, and successful team.

HT1 (SW) JACON MICELI
USS MICHAEL MURPHY (DDG 112)
SENIOR SAILOR OF THE YEAR

Petty Officer Miceli's selection was defined by his daily outstanding performance on the deckplates; he is the epitome of Ship, Shipmate, Self. He is described as "the Fighting Spirit of the Navy". His ingenuity is boundless in confronting challenges; his watchstanding is superior and professionally executed; and his focus on training and mentorship is inspiring. More impressive, even his fellow Leading Petty Officers seek out his advice on mentoring and leadership. He has made it his mission to train, mentor and lead every Sailor on board the ship. Without question, Petty Officer Miceli has been a key factor in the ship's success.

QM3 (SW) TYLER J. GILBERT
USS ANCHORAGE (LPD 23)
BLUEJACKET OF THE YEAR

Petty Officer Gilbert is responsible for safe navigation and assisting the Officer of the Deck. He procured and corrected over 30 navigational charts for our return-to-homeport transit. He was handpicked to assist the flight deck crew in launch and recovery, chock and chain, and refueling for over 200 flight deck landings. His efforts ensured the aircraft and aircrews from the ACE were successful for fly-off. He assisted with inventorying over 200 pieces of navigation equipment, leading to a successful Afloat Training Group self-assessment inspection.

BM2 (SW) MATTHEW W. BORIE
USS ANCHORAGE (LPD 23)
JUNIOR SAILOR OF THE YEAR

As Deck Supervisor, Petty Officer Borie was responsible for the preservation and maintenance of 32 divisional spaces to support watercraft and vehicle operations. Petty Officer Borie led 3 junior Sailors in 2,300 hours of maintenance checks on the Knuckle Boom Crane, Sideport Crane, Well Deck Crane, Amphibious Recovery Winch, and critical Well Deck Equipment, including 1,707 17-ton, 35-ton and 70-ton tie-down lashing chains to support Well Deck Operations. Serving as the Junior Enlisted Association Public Affairs Officer and Master At Arms he documented all JEA events, coordinated fundraising events, and volunteered numerous hours of community service during COMRELS in China, Jordan, and Israel, building relations and improving public relations between the United States and other cultures.

Note. All the information contained in this document was obtained in its original form from the individual ships and units.

Seattle Navy League
2017 Annual Sea Services Luncheon

BM1 (SW) JUSTIN R. LAFARLETTE
USS ANCHORAGE (LPD 23)
SAILOR OF THE YEAR

As Underway Replenishment Rig Captain, Deck Rigger, Sliding Padeye Operator and Line Handler, Petty Officer Lafarlette was instrumental in the safe execution of 48 seamanship evolutions. His efforts resulted in the safe transfer of 862,386 gallons of diesel fuel and 1,200 pallets of cargo during the 2015 maiden deployment, which earned ANCHORAGE the Battle "E" award. In addition, Petty Officer Lafarlette trained and qualified 3 Rig Captains, enhancing ANCHORAGE's mission readiness. As Assistant Command Fitness Leader, he mentors and motivates Sailors. He effectively scheduled and administered over 600 Physical Fitness Assessments. He was recognized as the lead physical trainer for ANCHORAGE's Fitness Enhancement Program.

CPL ADAM HAMILTON
USMC 1 MARINE EXPEDITIONARY FORCE
MARINE OF THE YEAR

Cpl Hamilton joined the United States Marine Corps in May 2013. He joined to continue the legacy of Marines in his family. He is a Military Working Dog Handler from 1st Law Enforcement Battalion, Camp Pendleton, California. His favorite part of his job is working with dogs and being able to provide safety and confidence to the units he works with. He is excited to be able to share knowledge and information to the community of Seattle about the Military Working Dog program, and to demonstrate the capabilities of his Specialized Search Dog. Cpl Hamilton was selected to attend a Multi-National Special Forces Canine Event with his Specialized Search Dog, where he represented the 1st Law Enforcement Battalion as a subject matter expert on all aspects of the Military Working Dog program.

SSGT HECTOR CARDENAS
USMC RECRUITING STATION SEATTLE
MARINE OF THE QUARTER

Staff Sergeant Cardenas is recognized for superior performance of his duties while serving as a recruiter with Recruiting Station Seattle. Staff Sergeant Cardenas showed exemplary dedication to his duties by performing them in an exemplary manner. He has maintained an impeccable image of the Marine Corps to the Seattle community, and influences his team through powerful peer leadership and his personal example. Together with his team, Staff Sergeant Cardenas has been instrumental in motivating and influencing the Seattle youth to achieve more and to become exemplary citizens.

Note: All the information contained in this document was obtained in its original form from the individual ships and units.

Seattle Navy League
2017 Annual Sea Services Luncheon

SSGT DANIEL S. ARCAND
USMC RECRUITING STATION SEATTLE
MARINE OF THE YEAR

Staff Sergeant Arcand is recognized for superior performance of his duties while serving as a recruiter with Recruiting Station Seattle. Staff Sergeant Arcand showed exemplary dedication to his duty by performing them in a highly professional and competitive manner. He has been a driving force in the Marine Corps' recruiting efforts by meeting or exceeding all quality standards and ensuring the Marine Corps is recruiting only the best to join its ranks. Together with his team, Staff Sergeant Arcand has been instrumental to developing young men and women for the life-changing experience of becoming United States Marines.

AZ3 (AW/SW) JAMAL GAY
USS JOHN C STENNIS (CVN 74)
BLUEJACKET OF THE YEAR

Petty Officer Gay is recognized for selection as JOHN C. STENNIS' 2016 Bluejacket of the Year. Displaying exceptional leadership, his exhaustive review of over 300 Aviation Armament System logsets within the Optimized Organizational Maintenance Activity database led to the discovery and correction of 75 administrative errors. His efforts ensured 100 percent accuracy of this critical maintenance database. He documented 180 scheduled inspections, resulting in a 98 percent Aviation Armament System availability rate, which directly contributed to Carrier Air Wing NINE's 97 percent sortie completion rate. Additionally, he transferred 300 logsets for nine squadrons with zero discrepancies.

HM3 (FMF) KENNETH PATRICK
USS JOHN C STENNIS (CVN 74)
JUNIOR SAILOR OF THE YEAR

Petty Officer Patrick is recognized for selection as JOHN C. STENNIS' 2016 Junior Sailor of the year. He led embarked aviation medical technicians in performing 1,198 flight deck physicals, 301 separation physicals, 327 special duty screenings, and 2,493 audiometric evaluations, and in medically screening

Note: All the information contained in this document was obtained in its original form from the individual ships and units.

Seattle Navy League
2017 Annual Sea Services Luncheon

2,914 career waypoints and professional apprenticeship career track packages. His incredible efforts led to 98 percent medical readiness and the ship meeting all retention goals.

YN2 (SW/AW) DEMETRIUS SOUZA
USS JOHN C STENNIS (CVN 74)
SAILOR OF THE YEAR

Petty Officer Souza is recognized for selection as JOHN C. STENNIS' 2016 Sailor of the Year. He flawlessly processed 4,600 pieces of correspondence for Air Department, the largest department onboard JOHN C. STENNIS, greatly increasing the morale and career progression of 725 Sailors. As president of the Coalition of Sailors Against Destructive Decisions, he led 36 sailors during six events, encompassing 90 hours of community service that raised $1,300.

ET1 (SW/AW/EXW) BRYANT ALLENBAUGH
USS JOHN C STENNIS (CVN 74)
SENIOR SAILOR OF THE YEAR

Petty Officer Allenbaugh is recognized for selection as JOHN C. STENNIS' Senior Sailor of the Quarter, 2nd Quarter 2017. Displaying exceptional leadership, he led a division of 19 Sailors in the preventative and corrective maintenance of the ship's exterior communication suite, resulting in the on-time completion of all required maintenance during the 2017 Planned Incremental Availability. Additionally, he coordinated departmental tag-out training for 205 Sailors prior to the ship's maintenance availability start as Combat Systems Officer of the Watch, ensuring personnel and equipment safety and program compliance.

IT2 EMILY ANN SMITH
COMMANDER, CARRIER STRIKE GROUP THREE
BLUEJACKET OF THE YEAR

As Communication Watchstander, Petty Officer Smith provided expert network and communication support while ashore and afloat, ensuring outages were minimized and readiness was maximized while completing 120 staff trouble calls and setting up over 140 video tele-conferences during West PAC Deployment 2016. She also ensured the smooth transition of 77 Staff personnel to our shore facility. Her can-do attitude and work ethic led to her being selected as the Strike Group Three Blue Jacket of the Year.

Note: All the information contained in this document was obtained in its original form from the individual ships and units.

Seattle Navy League
2017 Annual Sea Services Luncheon

IT1 WESLEY W. WARD
COMMANDER, CARRIER STRIKE GROUP THREE
SAILOR OF THE YEAR

As the N6 Leading Petty Officer, Petty Officer Ward implemented a cross-training program, which enabled his Sailors to excel for professionally and personally. Performing well above his pay grade as the Strike Group's Primary Frequency Manager, his performance was directly responsible for the highly successful John C Stennis Strike Group deployment and multiple exercises. His command and strike group-wide impact made him a most well deserving Strike Group Three Sailor of the Year.

MMN2 TRAVIS ROBERT EARL POLK
USS OHIO (SSGN 726) (BLUE)
JUNIOR SAILOR OF THE QUARTER

Petty Officer Polk is being recognized today for displaying unparalleled technical ability and management skills through his research and familiarity of required procedures, specifications, and re-testing. His direction in training, development, and mentoring of four junior Sailors increased divisional level of knowledge and qualifications. Playing a critical role in the emergent replacement of a vital steam system component, his efforts enabled OHIO TO remain at sea and execute assigned tasking in the Pacific theatre. His personal perseverance and outstanding leadership led to Petty Officer Polk's selection as OHIO Blue Junior Sailor of the Quarter for the second quarter of 2017.

MMN1 EDWIN BENJAMIN MORANO
USS OHIO (SSGN 726) (BLUE)
SAILOR OF THE QUARTER

Petty Officer Morano is recognized today for displaying superior leadership and exceptional technical skill. Expertly leading his division through an extensive troubleshooting and repair of the ship's gamma spectroscopy and auto-titration equipment, his efforts enabled OHIO to safely return to homeport for a major maintenance period. His mentorship and experience were critical in the training of three Engineering Laboratory Technicians from other commands, resulting in the initial qualification of one Sailor as an ELT and two Sailors as Leading ELTs. His professionalism and mentorship resulted in his selection as OHIO's Sailor of the Quarter or the second quarter of 2017.

Note. All the information contained in this document was obtained in its original form from the individual ships and units.

Seattle Navy League
2017 Annual Sea Services Luncheon

ITS2 (SS) JASON MILLER
USS OHIO (SSGN 726) (GOLD)
JUNIOR SAILOR OF THE QUARTER

Petty Officer Miller consistently performed his demanding duties in an exemplary and highly professional manner. As the ship's leading Damage Control Petty Officer, he mentored 13 junior Sailors and managed the completion of over 1100 hours of preventative maintenance to OHIO's damage control equipment during the ship's six-month deployment. He qualified Chief of the Watch ahead of schedule and set the standard for his peers to follow. He troubleshooted and restored the ability to image new computer systems, providing six new laptops for crew use, greatly increasing productivity and crew morale. A technical expert and superb watchstander, he was the clear choice to train the new auxiliary electricians forward and one C4I Operator during the Electronic Warfare Initiative. His expertise and professionalism led to his selection as USS OHIO (SSGN 726)(GOLD) 2016 Junior Sailor of the Year.

MT1 (SS) GREGORY THORNBURG
USS OHIO (SSGN 726) (GOLD)
SAILOR OF THE YEAR

Petty Officer Thornburg consistently performed his demanding duties in an exemplary and highly professional manner. As a driving force in the USS OHIO's First Class Mess, his superior acumen was of great use with the development and initiation of the ship qualification DC crucible, leading to a significant increase of base knowledge for newly qualified personnel. His continuous pursuit of qualifications was unmatched as he rapidly qualified Diving Officer of the Watch, as one of three First Class Petty Officers to do so on OHIO. As mission Chief of the Watch, his aptitude and technical knowledge were second to none. Furthering his education, he was awarded a Bachelor of Science degree in environmental science. His superior performance set him apart from his peers and resulted in his selection as USS OHIO (SSGN 726)(GOLD) Sailor of the Year for FY 2016.

IT1 (SW/AW) LEVI P. ERNST
COMMANDER, SUBMARINE GROUP NINE
SAILOR OF THE YEAR

Demonstrating exceptional technical knowledge, Petty Officer Ernst meticulously worked on increasing morale by qualifying 12 personnel and increasing the level of knowledge of 18 personnel. He coordinated with 18 personnel creating a flexible and sustainable watchbill. As the assistant security

Note. All the information contained in this document was obtained in its original form from the individual ships and units.

Seattle Navy League
2017 Annual Sea Services Luncheon

manager, he maintained 80 Commander Submarine Group Nine personnel and assisted with 14 other commands to ensure all security clearances were maintained, keeping the Pacific Northwest region mission readiness at 100%. He processed over 150 base authorizations and visit requests for over 500 personnel to ensure only appropriate personnel were authorized proper access to facilities. His superior performance of duty has resulted in his selection as Commander Submarine Group Nine, Sailor of the Year for 2016.

MA1 (FMF) PETE CORTEZ
NAVAL STATION EVERETT SECURITY DEPARTMENT
SAILOR OF THE QUARTER

MA1Cortez leads and manages 12 Naval Security Force Members in daily Anti-Terrorism, Force Protection, Physical Security, and Law Enforcement functions to include Harbor Security boats guarding the Naval Vessel Protective Zone. Responsible for enforcing base regulations, state, and federal laws, and providing Anti-Terrorism/Force Protection to ensure safety and security of Naval Station personnel and 22 tenant commands. Responds to calls for service, physical security checks and is responsible for over $150,000 in Anti-Terrorism and Force Protection Equipment. He is Alpha Section USMAP coordinator, responsible for tracking the progression of 12 sailors in totaling 6,120 hours towards Police Officer I, Security Specialist and Ordnance Artificer. Only onboard and in the Master-at-Arms rating since September 2016, MA1 Cortez has established himself as a top performer in the SecurityDepartment. He attained Patrol Officer and Chief of the Guard qualifications almost six months ahead of schedule. He is the youngest member of my Anti-Terrorism Training Team but by far one of the best.

ABF2 (AW/SW) CAROLYN N. BLOOMER
TRANSIENT PERSONNEL UNIT PUGET SOUND
JUNIOR SAILOR OF THE QUARTER, FIRST QUARTER 2017

Petty Officer Bloomer is recognized for her selection as TPU Puget Sound Junior Sailor of the Quarter, first quarter 2017. ABF2 Bloomer was selected for her superior performance while serving as the Administrative Department Clerk. She flawlessly processed 183 pieces of correspondence to include evaluations, awards, instructions, and official mail with minimal supervision, resulting in a zero loss of man hours due to rework. Additionally, she served as the assistant Command Career Counselor for 43 staff members, directly contributing to our Command receiving the 2016 retention excellence award.

Note: All the information contained in this document was obtained in its original form from the individual ships and units.

Seattle Navy League
2017 Annual Sea Services Luncheon

ABH1 (AW/SW) TU N. CHAU
TRANSIENT PERSONNEL UNIT PUGET SOUND
SAILOR OF THE QUARTER, FIRST QUARTER 2017

Petty Officer Chau is recognized for his selection as TPU Puget Sound Sailor of the Quarter, first quarter 2017. ABH1 Chau was selected for his superior performance while serving as the Legal Department Leading Petty Officer. He led 11 staff members through legal processes for 161 Sailors, resulting in the completion of three non-judicial punishment proceedings, 38 evaluation extensions, and the processing of three involuntary separation pay requests totaling $38k. Additionally, he managed a work assignment program that saved the Navy $55K in non-contractor outsourcing.

AO2 (AW/SW) ASHLEY B. WALICKI
TRANSIENT PERSONNEL UNIT PUGET SOUND
JUNIOR SAILOR OF THE QUARTER, SECOND QUARTER 2017

Petty Officer Walicki is recognized for her selection as TPU Puget Sound Junior Sailor of the Quarter, second quarter 2017. AO2 Walicki was selected for her superior performance while serving as the Transitional Division Clerk. She meticulously managed appointments and identified correspondence discrepancies for 403 Sailors, resulting in a reduced processing time and directly impacting mission success. Additionally, she identified safety deficiencies over an annual period and ensured timely corrective action resulting in zero hits for our command's 2017 Safety Inspection.

LS1 (SW/AW) BUDIE R. SABAOT
TRANSIENT PERSONNEL UNIT PUGET SOUND
SAILOR OF THE QUARTER, SECOND QUARTER 2017

Petty Officer Sabaot is recognized for his selection as TPU Puget Sound Sailor of the Quarter, second quarter 2017. LS1 Sabaot was selected for superior performance of duty while serving as Leading Petty Officer within Operations Department. He was the driving force behind the 100 percent completion of quarterly room, zone, and security inspections leading to a five-star material condition of the command's 10,000-square-foot facility. In January, he responded to a medical emergency outside of his office and quickly rendered first aid to a shipmate in distress, saving the Sailor from extensive and life-threatening third-degree burns.

Note: All the information contained in this document was obtained in its original form from the individual ships and units.

Seattle Navy League
2017 Annual Sea Services Luncheon

NC1 (SW) RODNEY SCHEPPLER
NAVAL AIR STATION WHIDBEY ISLAND
SAILOR OF THE YEAR

Petty Officer Scheppler is recognized for displaying exceptional leadership skills by supervising, guiding, and training a 15-Sailor Command Development Team. As President of the First Class Petty Officers' Mess, he was instrumental in the success of the command's CPO 365 Phase I program. As the installation Partnership in Education (PIE) Coordinator, he was the main liaison between 25 tenant commands and 8 schools of the Oak Harbor School District, resulting in Sailors volunteering over 4,300 hours to the school district in various ways, to include tutoring, mentoring, attending school events, school clean-up, and serving food. Petty Officer Scheppler volunteers his time as the Director of Recreation for the North Whidbey Soccer Club, managing over 800 youth soccer players and coaches. His commitment to setting the right example, teaching fair play, and good sportsmanship has led to him being elected as the President of the Whidbey Island Soccer League. Petty Officer Scheppler is a dedicated professional of the highest caliber who excels in any situation regardless of difficulty or complexity; the words "can't be done" are not in his vocabulary.

PS2 KATHRYN CASTRO
NAVY RECRUITING DISTRICT SEATTLE
JUNIOR SAILOR OF THE YEAR

Petty Officer Castro is being recognized for her professional achievement as Navy Recruiting District Seattle's Junior Sailor of the Year for FY2016. Petty Officer Castro consistently performed her demanding duties in an exemplary manner. She was selected on the basis of her outstanding attitude towards the naval service, conduct both on and off duty, initiative, performance and military bearing. Petty Officer Castro's outstanding performance exemplifies the NRD Seattle Philosophy of being engaged in the fight for talent, and demanding strong moral character.

MC1 (NAC) SHANNON RENFROE
NAVY RECRUITING DISTRICT SEATTLE
SENIOR SAILOR OF THE YEAR

Petty Officer Renfroie is being recognized for her professional achievement as Navy Recruiting District Seattle's Senior Sailor of the Year for FY2016. Petty Officer Renfroie consistently performed her demanding duties in an exemplary manner. She was selected on the basis of her outstanding leadership as NRD Seattle's Command Career Counselor, strategically and systematically placing every Sailor's

Note. All the information contained in this document was obtained in its original form from the individual ships and units.

Seattle Navy League
2017 Annual Sea Services Luncheon

career as her own top priority. She dedicated countless hours both on and off duty in giving mentorship to her peers and Junior Sailors. And she coordinated and led numerous community events to help those less fortunate. Petty Officer Renfroe shows true commitment to the principles of Equal Opportunity, recognizing that our Nation's diversity is one of its most enduring strengths. Her outstanding performance exemplifies the NRD Seattle Philosophy and the Navy Core Values.

MA2 SAMANTHA FISHER
NAVY RECRUITING DISTRICT SEATTLE
RESERVE RECRUITER OF THE YEAR

Petty Officer Fisher is recognized for her meritorious service as the Navy Recruiting District Seattle Reserve Recruiter of the Year for FY2016. Under Petty Officer Fisher's charge, 31 prior service members with backgrounds in some of the most dynamic and sought after professional, scientific, and technical fields committed to serve in the Navy Reserve. Petty Officer Fisher took personal pride in contributing to their continued success by streamlining their transition to the Reserve, providing the highest professional assistance and peace of mind to her shipmates. Her devotion to duty embodies the Navy's Core Values: honor, courage, and commitment. Petty Officer Fisher proudly wears our Navy colors and represents the very best of our Navy.

MM1 (EXW/SW) JOSHUA D. FLANAGAN
NAVY RECRUITING DISTRICT SEATTLE
RECRUITER OF THE YEAR

Petty Officer Flanagan is recognized for his meritorious service as the Navy Recruiting District Seattle Recruiter of the Year for FY2016. Under Petty Officer Flanagan's quality leadership, 33 young men and women of different backgrounds and diversities committed to serve a greater cause. From initial contact to shipping to boot camp, Petty Officer Flanagan took deep personal pride in his applicants' success. His devotion to duty truly embodies the Navy's Core Values: honor, courage, and commitment. His outstanding recruiting results were simply exemplary, and provided a motivational catalyst for other Recruiters' success. Petty Officer Flanagan takes charge, knowing NRD Seattle's mission is every bit as important as those on the front lines.

Note: All the information contained in this document was obtained in its original form from the individual ships and units.

Seattle Navy League
2017 Annual Sea Services Luncheon

MA1 (SW/NWS) JENNIFER L. AGUILAR
NAVAL BASE KITSAP

SENIOR SAILOR OF THE QUARTER, THIRD QUARTER 2017

As the Harbor Patrol Unit LPO, Petty Officer Aguilar leads 81 Sailors, acting as the Chief in his absence. She is responsible for supervising and managing 3 patrol sections in their daily operations. She dedicated 74 hours providing the necessary revisions for the HPU Standard Operating Procedures after taking on an additional Area of Operations at Naval Base Kitsap Bangor Waterfront. Despite manning and equipment shortfalls, she continues to ensure mission readiness. An active member of the Command, she is the Naval Base Kitsap First Class Petty Officer Association President, leading physical fitness training and supporting scenario-based training during CPO 365. She has also taught 55 Sailors during the spring iterations of Petty Officer Indoctrination courses. Her caring demeanor and support attitude made her a great pick as the Command Mentorship Program Coordinator. Her enthusiasm towards mentorship and development is prevalent in her community service activities. In April and May she coordinated a 210-person multi-service active-duty and reserve volunteer event with the Puget Sound Honor Flight society in support of the WWII and Korean War Veterans returning from Washington DC. She committed 22 hours being towards being positive ambassador for the Navy and Naval Base Kitsap by stepping up to become the Administrative Officer for the United States Naval Sea Cadet Corps, Scorpion Squadron, providing positive female leadership and a role model to both the male and female youth that are participating in the Sea Cadet program. Petty Officer Aguilar characterizes esprit de corps and quality leadership. She provides encouraging guidance to her peers and her subordinates on ways to increase their worth and contribution to a team effort.

HM3 KELSEY YARBROUGH
NAVAL HOSPITAL BREMERTON
BLUEJACKET SAILOR OF THE QUARTER

HM3 Kelsey Yarbrough originally began her adult life as a Certified Nursing Assistant. She desired to do something "bigger" than herself. Being passionate about the health care of veterans and the active duty fighting force, she decided to join the Navy in 2015 as Hospital Corpsman. She hopes that someday she will be able to give back in the capacity of a Fleet Marine Force Corpsman, with the ultimate goal a being a Navy Nurse. In her Navy career, she has become passionate about Navy and cultural heritage, the professional development of those around her, and being involved in the command and community. While in serving as the Assistant Leading Petty Officer of the Multi-Service inpatient ward, she was meritoriously advanced to E4. HM3Yarbrough was selected as Blue Jacket of the Quarter because she is a dynamic and highly motivated team player, a caring and consummate professional with a strong desire to be a servant leader. We are extremely proud of our Sailor and the future of her leadership.

Note. All the information contained in this document was obtained in its original form from the individual ships and units.

Seattle Navy League
2017 Annual Sea Services Luncheon

PS2 AUSTIN G. ZAMBRANO
NAVAL HOSPITAL BREMERTON
JUNIOR SAILOR OF THE QUARTER

PS2 Austin Zambrano was looking towards a career in boxing, but decided to follow in his father's footsteps and serve his country; he joined the U. S. Navy in 2015 as a Personnel Specialist. In his Navy career he has become passionate about customer service, mentoring junior Sailors, command involvement, and community involvement. While in Personnel Specialist school, he was chosen as Honor Grad and promoted directly to E-3. Recently, he was selected as President of the Coalition of Sailors Against Destructive Decisions. He serves on the hospital Honor Guard team and he was meritoriously advanced to E5. PS2 Zambrano was selected as Junior Sailor of the Quarter because he is a team player, sought out mentor, and consummate professional. He has an above average administrative acumen and displays a maturity and leadership potential well beyond his paygrade. We are proud of our Sailor.

HM1 PAOLA FRANCESCO TRINIDAD
NAVAL HOSPITAL BREMERTON
SAILOR OF THE QUARTER, SECOND QUARTER 2017

Petty Officer Trinidad was selected amongst his competitive peer group for his superior leadership and management of 14 Junior Sailors. As the Leading Petty Officer for the Primary Care Department, he provided exemplary administrative and leadership support to his Sailors and 10 health care providers and nurses in an extremely high-volume outpatient setting responsible for 2,000 patients per month. With a strong vision to accelerate Sailors' careers, he spearheaded an Enlisted Advancement Program for Branch Clinic Everett, directly contributing to 18 promotions in one year, with a 28% advancement rate. Petty Officer Trinidad has been a cornerstone to the clinic's many successes, which led to his selection as the Naval Hospital Bremerton's Sailor of the Quarter.

Note: All the information contained in this document was obtained in its original form from the individual ships and units.

Seattle Navy League
2017 Annual Sea Services Luncheon

EN1 RYAN BARTOLETTI
NAVY REGION NORTHWEST

SENIOR SAILOR OF THE QUARTER, SECOND QUARTER 2017

Petty Officer Bartoletti's initiative and attention to detail were instrumental in the safe operation of the historic Flag Barge, OLD MAN IV, during several operational testing runs and a rare and challenging dry dock evolution. He was responsible for the completion of 200 hours of individual maintenance actions, and his attention to detail was paramount to the discovery and subsequent repair of a major engine issue, saving more than $10,000 dollars in contracted labor costs. He qualified as Region Operations Center Battle Watch Commander, a watchstanding position normally held by senior Lieutenants. His outstanding efforts earned him selection as the 2017 Commander, Navy Region Northwest Sailor of the Quarter for 2nd quarter 2017.

Note: All the information contained in this document was obtained in its original form from the individual ships and units.

*Seattle Navy League
2017 Annual Sea Services Luncheon*

Thank you to our sponsors for helping make today's event possible:

*The Boeing Company
Tri-Tec Manufacturing, LLC
The Jaffa Company
GMN/superGraphics
Holland America Line
ManTech
HMS Global Maritime
Fremont Dock Co.
Ship Supply*

*Ivar's – Athletic Awards Company – Paddy Coyne's
Columbia Hospitality/Bell Harbor*

And a special THANKS to all of our Individual Donors for their generous contributions for Fleet Week & throughout the year!

*Seattle Navy League
2017 Annual Sea Services Luncheon*

Thank you for attending and helping us recognize these fine young men and women.

Congratulations to each of the awardees!

Note: All the information contained in this document was obtained in its original form from the individual ships and units.